OVER THE SNOW.

A CHRISTMAS STORY.

(From London Society.)

My Good-for-Nothing.

Before a cheerful fire, in the best kitchen of a snug west-country cottage, sat two persons, a man and a woman, both advanced in years. All around were air of homely comfort. Of mere ornaments there was little; but the simple, homely plainness could be, and was, seen in the arrangement and spotless cleanliness spoke highly for the good housekeeping of its owners. A square of Dutch carpet, bound with crimson braid, was spread upon the stone floor, and a placed upon it a small oak bookcase displaying upon its shelves good books and old and antique volumes. On the chimney-piece a clockwork ticked merrily, and in the room stood a round old-fashioned square piano, on which were piled a considerable number of well-bound books—

Over the carpet the deer little feet came in a pair of soft, well-ribbed stockings.

Two merry girls in red gowns and garters were dancing in the room, and the man and woman were looking on with a smile.

“Good for you, maids; good to see you!”

“Good to see you, maids; good to see you!”

“Good for you, maids; good to see you!”

“Good to see you, maids; good to see you!”

THE HASTINGS CHRONICLE.

BY THE CARLE.

London, Dec. 13, noon.

Fenian troubles in Ireland are increasing and dissatisfaction appears to have spread all over the country. Notwithstanding the extraordinary military precautions of the authorities, more troops will be sent from England during next week. Montane, a native of Ireland, and an artillery is to proceed to Ireland without delay.

Rome, Dec. 12.—The French ambassador, Count Montibelli, has informed the Pope that if he withdraws from the holy city, the French troops hereafter will give him no support. There are various reasons in the minds of the French for the retention of the Pope. Some assert that the holy father will seek refuge in Spain; there are others who are of the opinion that Avignon will be selected as the future Papal residence. The status of affairs in the capital is quite critical.

Cork, Dec. 12, evening.—A large number of English have embarked at this and other Irish ports to America.

Paris, Dec. 13.—The Empress Eugenie has finally decided to visit the Pope at Rome.

London, Dec. 13, noon.—It has been clearly proved that the Pope will leave, which was recently stated in the Midway, was not designed for the Fanatics. She belongs to Columbia, and will be delivered to the agent of that Government as soon as possible.

London, Dec. 13, noon.—A most appalling explosion has occurred in a colliery at Basley, in the county of York. Over three hundred dead have already been taken from the mine, and many others are still unaccounted for.

London, Dec. 13.—The colliery at which the explosion took place contained the largest pit in this district of the country. The shaft is 270 yards deep, and the lateral works extended a distance of two miles from the bottom. Nearly 400 men and boys were in the mine at the time of the explosion, nearly 200 were killed.

London, Dec. 13.—Every side is being given to rescue the survivors. Exploring parties have counted 38 dead bodies within the space of 50 yards. A few of the unfortunate victims have been brought out alive, but badly maimed. Engineers of the opinion that owing to the foul air, there can be no more alive in the works. If this is so, over 300 human beings lie dead in the recesses of the earth. The most terrible of the family in the town is more intense and painful, and the works and vicinity have been a scene of wailing and despair all day. A similar accident occurred some twenty years ago, at the same pit, by which seventy-three lives were lost.

Barnsley, Dec. 13.—Another explosion took place in the same pit at 9 o'clock this morning, while working parties were finding and drawing out the dead. Several officials and 300 miners were at work in the pit (30 in all) were in the pit at the time of the disaster, and it is feared that they have all perished. The exciting scenes of yesterday were renewed.

London, Dec. 13, noon.—Some of the volunteers have been taken out alive.

London, Dec. 15, noon.—Fenian alarms in Ireland continue.

Much needless alarm prevails throughout the entire island.

Paris, Dec. 15.—In the case of the U. S. and France, the French court ordered the U. S. to pay a large sum into court as security for the payment of suit.

The U. S. consul said that legal steps have been adopted in France, but there was a more serious diplomacy with England.

London, Dec. 14, 1 p.m.

It is rumoured here that the temporal power of his holiness the Pope has been re-cured by an agreement made between the Emperor Napoleon and Victor Emanuel.

Paris, Dec. 14.—The Crown Prince of Prussia has informed the King that he cannot take up his residence at Hanover as desired by his Majesty, because his consort the Princess Royal of England refuses to become the mistress of a castle that once belonged to the Crown of the Queen of England.

Berlin, Dec. 14.

The German Parliament will consist of one Chamber. In conjunction with this assembly, there will be a Federal commission composed of the different Governments belonging to the North German Confederation.

The Prussian Government insists that the military organization of the Union should be identical, viz., similar to that in force in Prussia in every detail, equipment, munitions, and military exercises.

Officers will be able to rise through the ranks, and their promotion to contingents of the different states. The appointments of the officers must be ratified by the King of Prussia, to whom the oath of allegiance must be made by every soldier.

Ottawa, Dec. 17.—It is apparent that while it is not present for the election of members of parliament to fill the vacancies which have recently occurred, the representation of the people in Parliament, as it is almost certain that a general election will take place under the new constitution within six months.—Cor. Globe.

A GOOD HORSE.

There is much pleasure and profit in the service of a good horse, and very little of either in the service of a bad one. The choice of which such need not be. We have had some horses so bad that, though they could not be ridden, they were more valuable and useful to their owners to produce a bad effect, there is nothing to do with them.

The officers must be ratified by the King of Prussia, to whom the oath of allegiance must be made by every soldier.

Ottawa, Dec. 17.—The Canadian Fair Destroyer instantly with a great roar removed all pain from a horse's head, and is decided to be the medicine, however, for the cure of rheumatism, pleurisy, at night, &c., &c. It removes all pain, and multiplies all drugs.

There.

Dr. — The Canadian Fair Destroyer instantly with a great roar removes all pain from a horse's head, and is decided to be the medicine, however, for the cure of rheumatism, pleurisy, at night, &c., &c. It removes all pain, and multiplies all drugs.

The officers must be ratified by the King of Prussia, to whom the oath of allegiance must be made by every soldier.
